

Bonus #3

One Hour Coach Call with Anne Blumer, CPO© to answer any questions you have about managing and growing a professional organizer business and working with clients. You tailor this one hour training and educational session to your needs.

Anne has decades of training experience including teaching hundreds of participants to become professional organizer business owners and business professionals on merger and acquisition procedures in the high-tech industry. Her experience as a business owner and founder of SolutionsForYou, Inc. Organizing Services has given her skills, knowledge, and the ability to provide complete and comprehensive training for individuals that will enable them to successfully operate their professional organizer business. Anne is among the inaugural 200 Professional Organizers in the world to receive the Certified Professional Organizer CPO® Designation from the Board of Certification for Professional Organizers (BCPO). Additionally, Anne holds a certificate of training from the Coach Approach for Organizers™ and from the ICD a Level II ADD Specialist Certificate and Level II Chronic Disorganization Specialist Certificate.